Forecasts and Dashboards - Notice of Disclaimer

This notice of disclaimer applies to the Transparency Tool, and the Contracts for Difference Dashboards and Capacity Market Dashboards (together “the Dashboards”).

This notice must not be removed from this page and no page from this section of the Transparency Tool or Dashboards may be copied or downloaded or shared with or provided to any person without the page containing this notice also being copied or downloaded or shared with and provided to such person.

We remind you that the use of the Transparency Tool, Dashboards and their contents (which includes the data, graphs, forecasts, estimates and projections contained in this section and elsewhere in this Transparency Tool, and any updates thereof) are subject to the Terms of Use. By using the Transparency Tool/Dashboards and using and taking into consideration their contents you agree to the Terms of Use. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing and/or any provisions of the Terms of Use (including each disclaimer and/or limitation of liability and/or indemnity in the Terms of Use) you acknowledge, confirm and agree that:

1) we do not and shall not be deemed to:

- give any representation, warranty, undertaking or guarantee whatsoever (whether express or implied) in respect of the Transparency Tool or Dashboards and/or any of their content, including (i) as to the method or quality of compilation, preparation, production, maintenance, currency or updating thereof, (ii) as to the accuracy, completeness, adequacy or quality of any assumptions, knowledge, data, forecasts, projections, estimates, figures and/or values used, contained or reflected therein, and/or (iii) that the Transparency Tool and Dashboards and their content is error-free, accurate, comprehensive, complete or up to date or is being checked, kept up to date and/or refreshed; and/or
- have any duty of care, responsibility, obligation or liability whatsoever and howsoever arising (whether directly or indirectly) in relation to the Transparency Tool and Dashboards and/or any of their content, including to check, update, refresh or maintain the currency of any assumption, knowledge, data, forecast, estimate, projection, figure and/or value (and that this is so irrespective of any knowledge which we may have that any assumptions, knowledge, data, forecasts, estimates, projections, figures or values we have made or used are out of date or have become or are likely to have become inaccurate and/or would be different if made or used at any particular point in time, including at a more recent point in time).

2) by using the Transparency Tool and Dashboards and/or their content (1) you do so at your own risk, (2) you will not, and shall not claim or assert, that you have placed any reliance upon it or them for any purpose whatsoever.

3) by using the Transparency Tool and/or its content you acknowledge and agree that the forecasts, estimates and projections (including those commonly known as '15 month forecasts') contained within the Transparency Tool represent forecasts, estimates or projections created at a particular point in time and which may be out of date (including because they are not updated or are only updated on an approximately quarterly or periodic basis).

You acknowledge, confirm and agree that, as with any forecast, estimate or projection, the 15 month forecasts are subject to change as matters become known, clearer or are better understood, and that the Interim Levy Rate and Total Reserve Amount which are set in due course are likely to differ from the values shown in the 15 month forecasts.
